

Christmas Opera On Track Sunday

November 13, 2005

Casting is complete for "Amahl and the Night Visitors", which will commence performing December 1st, 2005. The show is being helmed by Musical Director Julie Pietrangelo and Artistic Director Laura Jean McCann, who is pleased with the turnout of talent at this busy time of year. The principal cast includes Tricia Flatley as Amahl, Helen Janik as Amahl's Mom, Kyle Rostad as King Kaspar, Rick Traczuk as King Malchior, Tyson Bree as King Balthazar and Gabe Traczuk as The Page. The chorus of shepherds and villagers come from various local churches. Click here for more details.

Rehearsals have begun for ACT's entry into the 2006 WODL Festival, "When the Reaper Calls" by Peter Colley, due to open at the Old Town Hall Theatre on February 2nd. The players consist of ACT veterans Mark Smith, Barbara Warnock, David Bogaert, Jennifer Leack and Meghan Leitch. Director Ron Sawyer is confident that this dynamite cast will turn this comedy-thriller into another ACT success. We have been fortunate to find some of the more esoteric props required by the script, thanks to Dunc Sinclair of East Elgin SS and ACT alumnus Mark Wellwood of the Ontario Police College. Stay tuned for further details.

Special thanks go out to our 2005-2006 Season Sponsors. We could not present our best efforts without the financial encouragement of our community partners. We all say "Bravo!" to:

Imperial Tobacco Leaf
McTaggart, Armstrong, Dewar and Owen Insurance
Hill's Pharmacy
Duncan Sinclair
Don and Judy Durkee
The Pizza Factory